

Course Name – X-Analysis R8 Update

Course Code – X08UPDate

Overview

The course consists of presentation for the Release 8 updates to the X-Analysis modules combined with a demonstration of the new features. The student is provided with a handout that provides an overview of the enhancements and the enhancements are explained and demonstrated.

The course is delivered by an instructor on the Web and is intended to be interactive and a question period time is also allocated. The course is designed to explain the enhancements and how to use them for the WDS, RDi, RSA, Eclipse environments.

Description

The course will cover the enhancements of the X-Analysis, Documenter, X-Rev (data modeling) and X-Extract (Business Rules) modules. New Administration functions and cross application functions are also covered.

Topics Covered

A partial list of the topics covered includes:

- New Preferences for X-Analysis setup
- New Procedure Cross reference/impact analysis capabilities
- New Exportable functions cross reference/impact analysis capabilities
- New Expanded Annotation features
- Metrics and Problem analysis capabilities
- New Screen Flow diagrams
- Enhancements to Data Modeling interface
- Application Area nesting enhancements
- Application Area Diagrams

Duration – 3 hours

Instructions

To enroll in this course please contact training@databorough.com